LABOR WILL ALWAYS SUPPORT THE NDIS

Labor will always support the NDIS, we will always protect it and we will always fund it.

Any suggestion to the contrary is wrong, offensive and any Liberal politician saying so should apologise.

Alongside thousands of people with disability and their carers, Labor designed and created the National Disability Insurance Scheme.

The Turnbull Government must stop lying to people with disability.

The future of the NDIS secure.

No one is more committed to the successful rollout of the NDIS than Labor.

Labor has a plan that is better and fairer for the Budget, which raises $4.5 billion more.

We reject the notion that the only way to protect the NDIS is to raise taxes on working and middle class Australians.

There is a legitimate debate in Australian politics right now about how to raise revenue, but questioning Labor's commitment to the NDIS is beyond the pale.
