HEALING VOICES

A social action documentary that is changing the conversation about mental health.

CINEMA NOVA

Thursday - 4 May 2017

380 Lygon St, Carlton VIC 3053, Australia

Doors Open at 6:00pm

Join us to be part of "Recovering Community" - a global screening event to mark the release of HEALING VOICES, a groundbreaking social action documentary from the USA which explores the experience labeled as "psychosis" and is bringing together communities around the world to engage in hopeful and healing intentional dialogues.

This special event features live Q&A with members of the mental health community and the Hearing Voices Network, and guest performance from "Listening to Voices". The Melbourne screening is one of more than 80 global sites participating in "Recovering Community" events, all of which are produced by local groups and organizations dedicated to creating a culture change in mental healthcare.
